

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

C A P. II.

An Act to amend an Act passed in the Seventh Year of His present Majesty, for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to the Presentment of Public Money by Grand Juries in Ireland.
[24th February 1837.]

6 & 7 W. 4.
c. 116.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Presentment of Public Money by Grand Juries in Ireland, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any Grand Jury of any County, County of a City, or County of a Town (except the County and City of Dublin), at any Assizes, to make any Presentment (save and except in the Cases in the said Act specially reserved and excepted) for the Execution of any Public Work whatsoever, or for raising any Money, unless under the Authority and by virtue of the Provisions of the said Act: And whereas since the passing of the said Act Doubts have been entertained whether certain Presentments can be legally made by the several Grand Juries in Ireland at the next Spring Assizes, the Presentment Sessions at which Application should have been made for such Presentments not having been appointed or held under the said recited Act: And whereas it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed, and that the said Act should in other respects be amended: Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Juries of each County, County of a City, and County of a Town in Ireland, at the next Spring Assizes, to make Presentments in the same Manner as they would have been authorized to do in case the several previous Presentment Sessions for their

Presentments may be made at the next Spring Assizes, and such Presentments and the their respective Counties, necessary in that Behalf, had been appointed and held and the several Applications thereat made under the Provisions of the said recited Act; and all such Applications, and all Presentments of such Grand Juries, and the several Proceedings of the previous Presentment Sessions and of preceding Grand Juries thereon, bond fide made and entered into, either according to the said Act or to any Law in force immediately before the passing thereof, shall be good and valid to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Proceedings of previous Sessions to be valid.

II. And whereas Doubts have arisen how far the County of Dublin and the County of the City of Dublin are within the Operation of the said Act, and it is expedient to remove such Doubts; be it therefore and it is hereby declared and enacted, That the said Act shall not be construed to affect or extend to the said Counties or either of them, save and except only in so far as Provision is by the said Act made requiring the Grand Juries of such Counties to transact their fiscal Business in open Court, and for the more speedy and effectual Repair by the Commissioners for the Extension and Promotion of Public Works in Ireland, upon the Application of His Majesty's Postmaster General, of Roads upon which His Majesty's Mails are carried, which Provisions shall remain in full Force and Effect.

For removing Doubts respecting the Operation of the recited Act in the County and in the City of Dublin.

III. And be it enacted, That a Notice in Writing of every Application for any Work intended to be made at any Presentment Sessions holden under the Provisions of the said recited Act shall be affixed, by or on behalf of the Person or Persons intending to make such Application, on or immediately adjacent to the Doors of every Police Station or Barrack within such Parish or Parishes wherein the Work to which such Applications shall relate is proposed to be executed, and at the Places (if any) appointed by the Grand Jury for posting Notices therein; and such Notices shall be so affixed at the Time in the said Act directed; and a Copy of every such Notice shall be delivered to the Clerk of the Petty Sessions of the District where the Work for which such Application is intended to be made, or the greater Portion thereof, is to be performed, instead of to the Clerk of the Petty Sessions of the District off which it is proposed that the larger Portion of the Expence of such Work is to be raised, as by the said Act is directed; and the Notice of every such Application shall be delivered to the County Surveyor Ten Days before the Day appointed for holding the first Presentment Sessions in each County after every Assizes: Provided always, that the Delivery of any such Notice to the Baronial Constable Fifteen Days before the Day appointed for holding such Sessions shall be deemed to be due Notice to the said County Surveyor; and any Baronial Constable to whom any such Notice may be delivered shall transmit the same to the said County Surveyor within Five Days after he shall have received the same; and it shall not be necessary to deliver any such Notice other than the Application itself to the Secretary of the Grand Jury.

Posting and delivering of Notices.

Proviso.

IV. And be it enacted, That all Applications for Works the Expence whereof is by the said Act directed to be levied, one Half off the County and the other Half off any Barony or Baronies in which such Works or any Part thereof may be situate, shall shall be made at the Presentment Sessions to be holden for the Barony in which such Work or the greater Portion thereof is locally situated.

Enactment in recited Act respecting Grant to Dispensaries, &c. repealed.

V. ' And whereas by the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament it is amongst other things enacted, that no Presentment for any Fever Hospital or Dispensary established by private Subscriptions or Donations shall be made in case it shall appear that the Salary of the Medical Attendant during the last Year amounted to One Half of the Sum to which the Subscriptions, Donations, and the Sum presented would amount: And whereas the said Enactment hath been found inconvenient; be it therefore enacted, That the said Enactment shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Presentment for Maintenance of deserted Children.

VII. And be it enacted, That the Power of any Judge of Assize to order and of Grand Juries to present, under the Provisions of the said Act, any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for the Maintenance of deserted Children, shall extend to Cases where any Child shall have been left exposed and deserted before the passing of the said Act: Provided always, that such Presentment shall be applied for and levied and paid in the Manner by the said Act particularly directed.

Presentment for Salaries of Treasurers in Towns and Cities.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the County Treasurers of the Cities and Towns in the Fifth and Sixth Classes of the Schedule marked (S.) to the said recited Act annexed shall (except in those Cases where the Grand Juries of such Cities and Towns shall, with the Consent of the Court, determine on paying such Officers by a Poundage on their Receipts,) be paid and remunerated for their respective Duties, Services, and Expences by annual Salaries only, payable half-yearly at each Assizes by equal Moieties, and not exceeding the Amount respectively limited in the said Schedule as the Salary of the Clerks of the Peace in the same Cities and Towns in each of the said Classes; and the Grand Juries of such Cities and Towns at each Assizes shall and may present (without previous Application to Presentment Sessions) for each such Treasurer, to be raised off the County at large, the Moiety of such annual Salary: Provided always, that in case of any negligent or insufficient Discharge of Duty by any such Treasurer, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Grand Jury of any such City or Town,

And be it enacted, That the Sheriff of each County in Ireland, in which there are not Ten Baronies or Half Baronies, shall, in framing the Panel of Persons summoned to serve on the Grand Jury of such County at each Assizes, after the passing of this Act, observe the Rule herein-after following; (that is to say,) he shall place first on such Panel for each Barony or Half Barony in such County the Name of some Person having in such Barony or Half Barony Freehold Lands of the yearly Value of Fifty Pounds and upwards, or Leasehold Lands of the yearly Value of One hundred Pounds over and above the Amount of Rent payable out of or for such Leasehold Lands, so that as far as can be One fit and competent Person, having Lands of the Value aforesaid, and resident in each Barony, if the same can be found therein respectively, shall be placed upon such Panel; and having in such Manner selected such One fit and proper Person for each Barony and Half Barony, the Sheriff shall complete the said Panel as now by Law authorized and directed, and the Persons taken from the Panel so framed shall be and constitute the Grand Jury or Inquest of such County; any thing in any Writ, Precept, or Venire facias expressed or directed, or any Law, Statute, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding, and as if such Grand Jury were altogether composed of Freeholders: Provided always, that no Presentment or Indictment made or found by any Grand Jury shall be liable to be traversed, quashed, or in any Manner impeached by reason of the Grand Jury not being selected as aforesaid; but any Sheriff of such County who shall wilfully omit or neglect to follow the Rule hereby made for the Selection of the Grand Jury shall be liable, on a Complaint made to the Judge of Assize, to be fined such Sum as to such Judge shall seem proper.

X. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which, under the Powers vested in them by Law in that Behalf, the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland shall agree with any Grand Jury to grant One Moiety of the Expence of any Road or other Public Work, on such Grand Jury securing the Payment of the other Moiety thereof by Presentment, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners either to execute the said Work by Persons employed by them, or to permit such Grand Jury to execute the same in the Manner required by the said recited Act for other Public Works of the like Nature: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for such Grand Jury in any Case to make a Presentment for Payment of such Moiety, except after and upon an Application for such Work duly made to and approved at a Presentment Sessions in the Manner required by the said Act.

public Road, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners at all Times thereafter to exercise all and every the same Powers and Authorities which are now vested in the Surveyor of any County, or the Contractor for any Road, under and by virtue of the said Act of the Sixth and Seventh of William the Fourth, or otherwise howsoever, or as the said Commissioners by the Act of the Sixth of George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and one, intituled An Act to provide for the repairing, maintaining, and keeping in repair certain Roads and Bridges in Ireland, as far as the said Commissioners may consider the same or any of them necessary for the Preservation and good Order of such Roads, and the Removal of all Nuisances thereon, as also for the Purpose of obtaining Materials for such Repairs or Maintenance which they shall have so undertaken.

6 G. 4. c.101.

Collectors to include Occupiers of Houses in their Returns in Cases where Grand Jury Cess is ap-plotted.

XII. 'And whereas Doubts have existed whether in Counties where the Grand Jury Cess is apportioned upon both Lands and Houses, the High Constables or other Collectors of Grand Jury Cess, in preparing certain Returns to be by them made and delivered to the Secretary of the Grand Jury, pursuant to the Directions of the said recited Act, ought to include in such Returns the Names of Persons occupying Houses;' be it enacted, for the Removal of such Doubts, That in such Counties as aforesaid the High Constables or other Collectors of Grand Jury Cess shall, in preparing said Returns, include therein the Names of Persons in actual Occupation of Houses, in the same Manner in all respects as by the said recited Act they are directed to proceed in framing such Returns with respect to other Persons chargeable with Grand Jury Cess on account of other Property.

Collector not necessarily resident within the Barony.

XIII. 'And whereas by the said recited Act it is amongst other things enacted, that the Grand Jury of every County shall at each Assizes appoint a proper Person resident in the Barony to be High Constable or Collector thereof: And whereas the said Enactment has been found inconvenient, so far as it requires that the High Constable or Collector shall reside within the Barony;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall not be necessary that the Person so appointed to collect shall actually reside within the Barony, provided it shall appear to the Magistrates and Ratepayers assembled at the Sessions of the Barony, and to the Grand Jury, that his usual Place of Residence is sufficiently contiguous thereto; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Place for holding last Meeting of Sessions to be at Discretion of Grand Jury.

XIV. 'And whereas in the said recited Act it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for the several Grand Juries in Ireland and they are thereby required at each Assizes to appoint by Presentment certain Places within their respective Counties, viz., One in each Barony or Half Barony, where, and certain Times when, Presentment Sessions shall be successively holden previous to the next Assizes for such Counties respectively, for the Purposes set forth in said recited Act; and said recited Act enacts, that such Presentment shall appoint the last Meeting of such Sessions to be holden in the County Court House: And whereas in many Counties in Ireland the County Court House is not centrally situated in regard to the County;' be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the several Grand Juries and they are hereby required to appoint by Presentment the last Meeting of such Sessions to be holden either in the County Court House or such other Court House or Place as they may deem most conveniently situated for the Purpose; and the Presentment Sessions for the County at large shall be holden there; any Words in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Grand Jury to re-present any such Sums of Money as now are or at any Time hereafter shall be unpaid or in arrear out of any Denomination Barony, County of a City or Town, to be raised and levied on such Denomination Barony, County of a City or Town, or on any Part or Portion thereof, upon which the same was originally required by the Treasurer's Warrant to be levied; and such Sums of Money so re-presented shall be levied in the same Manner, and subject to the same Rules, Regulations, Provisions, and Powers, as any other Sums of Money presented by any Grand Jury.

Grand Jury enabled to re-present Arrears to be levied from the Lands on which they accrued.

XVI. And whereas the Time limited by the said recited Act for lodging with the Secretary of Grand Jury the Certificates of the due Execution of Works contracted for, or of the Performance of Contracts, which Contractors are by the said Act required to obtain from the County Surveyor previous to applying for Payment, has been found inconvenient; and it is expedient to amend the said Act in that respect; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be expedient for such Contractors, and they are hereby required, to produce such Certificates as aforesaid at the Sessions at which they may apply for Payment; any thing in the said Act requiring such Certificates to be procured and lodged at any previous Time to the contrary notwithstanding.

Contractors to produce Certificates of County Surveyor as to due Execution of Contracts at the Sessions at which they apply for Payment.

XVII. And whereas by the said recited Act Two Justices of the Peace at Petty Sessions are empowered to order Sums not exceeding a certain Amount to be expended in repairing any Bridge or Road or Pier or Quay which may be suddenly damaged, and the Repairs of which cannot be delayed until the next Assizes without Prejudice to the Public, as in the said Act mentioned, but it is by the said Act required that the Necessity of such Repairs should be notified to such Justices by the County Surveyor: And whereas it is expedient to dispense with such previous Notification; be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said Act as requires a previous Notification of the Necessity of such Repairs as aforesaid on the Part of the County Surveyor to such Justices shall be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to dispense with the Certificate of the County Surveyor, to be given after the Execution of the Work, that the Money appears to have been faithfully and honestly expended pursuant to the Order made by such Justices.

Repeal of so much of former Act as requires the Necessity of Repairs in Case of Accident to be notified by County Surveyor.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to the Presentment of Public Money by Grand Juries in Ireland, shall continue in full Force and Effect, save and except so far as the same is expressly repealed or altered by this Act; and that the said recited Act and this Act shall be construed together as One Act to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Forces.

‘ WHEREAS the raising or keeping a standing Army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Time of Peace, unless it be with the Consent of Parliament, is against Law: And whereas it is adjudged necessary by His Majesty, and this present Parliament, that a Body of Forces should be continued, for the Safety of the United Kingdom, the Defence of the Possessions of His Majesty’s Crown, and the Preservation of the Balance of Power in Europe, and that the whole Number of such Forces should consist of Eighty-one thousand three hundred and eleven Men, being Part of an Establishment of Eighty-nine thousand three hundred and forty-seven Men, exclusive of the Officers and Men belonging to the Regiments employed in the Territorial Possessions of the East India Company, but including the Officers and Men of the Troops and Companies recruiting for those Regiments: And whereas no Man can be forejudged of Life or Limb, or subjected in Time of Peace to any Kind of Punishment within this Realm, by Martial Law, or in any other Manner than by Judgment of his Peers and according to the known and established Laws of this Realm; yet nevertheless, it being requisite, for the retaining all the before-mentioned Forces in their Duty, that an exact Discipline be observed, and that Soldiers who shall mutiny or stir up Sedition, or shall desert His Majesty’s Service, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than the usual Forms of the Law will allow: Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person who is or shall be commissioned or in Pay as an Officer, or who is or shall be listed or in Pay as a Non-

Powers of
martial.

VII. And be it enacted, That a General Court-martial may sentence any Soldier to Imprisonment with or without hard Labour, in any public Prison, or other Place which the Court or the Officer commanding the Regiment or Corps to which the Offender belongs or is attached shall appoint, and may also direct that such Offender shall be kept in solitary Confinement for the Whole or any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment, or of such Imprisonment with hard Labour, or may sentence any Soldier to Corporal Punishment, not extending to Life or Limb, for Immorality, Misbehaviour, and Neglect of Duty; and a General Court-martial may, in addition to any such Punishment as aforesaid, sentence any Offender to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay, and Pension on Discharge; and whensoever any General Court-martial by which any Soldier shall have been tried and convicted of any Offence punishable with Death shall not think the Offence deserving of Capital Punishment, such Court-martial may, instead of awarding a Corporal Punishment or Imprisonment, adjudge the Offender, according to the Degree of the Offence, to be transported as a Felon for Life or for a certain Term of Years, or may sentence him to general Service as a Soldier in any Corps and in any Country or Place which His Majesty shall thereupon direct, or may, if such Offender shall have enlisted for a limited Term of Years, sentence him to serve for Life as a Soldier in any Corps which His Majesty shall please to direct; and the Court may, in addition to any other Punishment, sentence such Offender to forfeit all Advantages as to Increase of Pay, or as to Pension on Discharge, which might otherwise have accrued to such Offender; provided that in all Cases where a Capital Punishment shall have been awarded by a General Court-martial it shall be lawful for His Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, for the Officer commanding in chief the Forces at the Presidency to which the Offender shall belong, instead of causing such Sentence to be carried into execution, to order the Offender to be transported as a Felon, either for Life or for a certain Term of Years, as shall seem meet to His Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, to the Officer commanding as aforesaid.

Transportation from the United Kingdom.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That whenever His Majesty shall intend that any Sentence of Transportation heretofore or hereafter passed by any Court-martial shall be carried into execution for the Term specified in such Sentence or for any shorter Term, or shall be graciously pleased to commute as aforesaid to Trans-

' the same shall be put in Writing by the Counsel for the Party
 ' objecting, and signed by the Judge or Judges, but notwithstanding ' the said Exception the Trial shall proceed, and the Jury shall ' give a Verdict therein for the Pursuer or Defender, and assess ' Damages when necessary; and after the Trial of every such ' Issue or Issues the Judge who presided shall forthwith present
 ' the said Exception, with the Order or Interlocutor directing
 ' such Issue or Issues, and a Copy of the Verdict of the Jury
 ' indorsed thereon, to the Division by which the said Issue or ' Issues were directed, which Division shall thereupon order the ' said Exception to be heard in Presence on or before the Fourth
 ' Sederunt Day thereafter; and in case the said Division shall
 ' allow the said Exception, they shall direct another Jury to be

The other Moiety shall be supplied out of the Loan Funds by way of Exchequer Bills.

A Moiety of the Money so advanced shall be raised by Grand Jury Presentment off the Barony in which the Work may have been executed, or off the County at large, as the Grand Jury shall determine.

VIII. And be it enacted, That a Moiety of the Monies so from Time to Time advanced for the Execution of Public Works in any County, pursuant to the Application of the Justices and Cess Payers assembled at Special Sessions as aforesaid, shall be repaid by Grand Jury Presentment at such Time and in such Manner, and with such Interest, as the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall appoint and direct; and the said Commissioners acting under and in execution of the said Acts shall from Time to Time, as they may be directed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, certify to the Secretary of the Grand Jury of each such County the Money so to be repaid; and each such Secretary shall lay such Certificate before the Grand Jury of such County at the next Assizes after he shall receive the same; and it shall be lawful for such Grand Jury and they are hereby required to present the Sum mentioned in every such Certificate to be raised either off the County at large or off the Barony or Half Barony or other Division in which the Work to which such Certificate may relate shall have been executed, as they may think fit; and the Treasurer of such County shall pay the Sum so presented, when and as by him received, to such Bank or Person as the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall direct, to be by them carried to the same Account as other Monies received in payment of Loans under the said Acts: Provided always, that if the Grand Jury of any County shall fail to present the Sum mentioned in any such Certificate, the Treasurer of such County shall and he is hereby required to insert such Sum in his Warrant for raising the Monies presented at the same Assizes, as if such Sum had been presented by such Grand Jury to be raised off the County at large, and the same shall be raised and levied off such County accordingly, as if the same had been so presented; and the said Treasurer shall pay over the Amount, when by him received, as herein-before provided in the Case of such Money being presented.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to provide for improving and rebuilding Shire Halls, County Halls, and other Buildings for holding the Assizes and Grand Sessions, and also Judges Lodgings, throughout England and Wales, it is amongst other things enacted, that whenever it shall appear to the Justices at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in any County, Riding, or Division in England or Wales, by any Presentment to be made by the Grand Jury at any Assizes or Session of Gaol Delivery or Session of the Peace to be holden for any such County, Riding, or Division, or by any Presentment to be at any Time made by any Two or more Justices of the Peace in and for such County, Riding, or Division, and laid before the Justices at any such General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, that any Shire Hall, County Hall, or other Building accustomedly made use of for holding the Assizes or Sessions of the Peace shall be insufficient, inconvenient, deficient, or in want of Repair or Improvement, or that there is a Necessity for the Erection of a new Shire Hall, County Hall, or other Building, it shall be lawful for the Justices assembled at the General or Quarter Sessions at which such Presentment shall be laid before such Justices in manner therein mentioned to take such Measures, either by Contract or otherwise, as shall appear to them to be requisite and proper for the altering, enlarging, repairing, or improving of any Shire Hall, County Hall, or other Building as aforesaid, or for the pulling down of any such Shire Hall, County Hall, or other Building, or any Part thereof, and for the building of any new Shire Hall, County Hall, or other Building, or any Part thereof, in lieu of any Building or any Part of any Building which shall be so pulled down: And whereas the Assizes and Sessions of the Peace for divers Counties, Ridings, and Divisions have been usually holden in the Town Hall of some City or Town, or in some Building belonging jointly to such County, Riding, or Division, and to the City or Town wherein the same is situate, and not in any Shire Hall, County Hall, or other Building belonging exclusively to such County, Riding, or Division; and Doubts have been entertained whether under the Provisions of the said Act the Justices have Power under any such Presentment as aforesaid to take Measures for the building, altering, or repairing of any Shire Hall or County Hall, or Building used or to be used partly as a Shire Hall and partly as a Town Hall, in those Cases in which such Assizes or Sessions have heretofore been usually holden in some Town Hall or other Building not being a Shire Hall or County Hall or other Building belonging exclusively to such County, Riding, or Division, and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth's Reign, intituled An Act for the Appointment of convenient Places for the holding of Assizes in England and Wales, it is amongst other things enacted, that His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, shall have Power from Time to Time to order and direct at what Place or Places in any County of England or Wales the Assizes or Sessions under the Commissions of Gaol Delivery and other Commissions for the Despatch of Criminal and Civil Business shall be holden, and to order and direct such Assizes and Sessions for the Despatch of Criminal and Civil Business to be holden at more than One Place in the same County on the same Circuit; and it is expedient that the Provisions contained in the said Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth should be extended to Cases where it may be necessary to provide Shire Halls for holding Assizes in Places at which the same may be holden under the Provisions of the said Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty: And whereas it is also expedient that the Justices of the Peace of Counties, Ridings, or Divisions in England and Wales should be empowered to enter into Contracts with the Owners of Town Halls or other Buildings, for the Use and Occupation of such Town Halls or other Buildings, or Part thereof, for the holding of Assizes and Sessions therein, and for other County Business, and for the Repair, Alteration, or Improvement of such Town Halls or other Buildings: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and singular the Powers, Authorities, and Provisions in the said Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth contained relative to the building, altering, and repairing of any Shire Hall or County Hall, in lieu of any former Shire Hall or County Hall pulled down under the Provisions of the said Act, and to the purchasing any Houses, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments for that Purpose, and to defraying the Expences of any such Building, and to raising Money for that Purpose, shall be deemed and taken to apply to and authorize the building, altering, and repairing of any Shire Hall or County Hall, or Building used or to be used partly as a Shire Hall and partly as a Town Hall, in those Cases in which such Assizes or Sessions as aforesaid have usually been holden in some Town Hall or other Building not belonging exclusively to such County, Riding, or Division, and whether such Town Hall or other Building shall or shall not be pulled down, and the purchasing any Houses, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments for that Purpose, and the defraying the Expences of any such Building, and the raising Money for that Purpose, in the same Way as if such Shire Hall, County Hall, or Building used or to be used partly as a Shire Hall and partly as a Town Hall had been built in lieu of some Shire Hall or County Hall pulled down under the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act.

II. And be it enacted, That in all Cases in which by virtue of any Order in Council, made or to be made under the Authority of the said Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, the Assizes for any County, Riding, or Division have been or shall hereafter be directed to be holden in any City, Town, or Place in which the same have not usually been holden, either in addition to or in substitution for the Place at which the same have usually been holden for such County, Riding, or Division, the Provisions contained in the said Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth shall be deemed and taken to authorize and empower the Justices in Sessions assembled to take all necessary Measures, by Contract or otherwise, for purchasing in such City, Town, or Place at which such Assizes shall have been or may hereafter be directed to be holden any Building to be converted into or used as a new Shire Hall or County Hall, or for purchasing in such City, Town, or Place any Ground, and erecting thereon any new Shire Hall or County Hall, and for repairing and altering from Time to Time any such Shire Hall, County Hall, or Building, in the same Manner and subject to the same Restrictions and Regulations, and with the same Powers and Authorities, as in the said last-mentioned Act are contained with reference to the County Halls or Shire Halls therein mentioned: Provided always, that nothing herein or in the said recited Act contained shall be deemed or taken to restrict the said Justices from purchasing any such Shire Hall or County Hall, or causing the same to be built in any Place which to them may seem most convenient.

III. XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Salaries and Compensation Allowances by way of Salary herein-before granted to the several Masters of the said Courts respectively, and also the Salaries and Compensation Allowances by way of Salary which shall and may be granted to the several Clerks and Messengers in the Offices of the Masters under the Provisions of this Act, together with the necessary and unavoidable Expences of the said Offices respectively, shall be paid and payable out of and be charged and chargeable upon the Fees received by the Masters in the said Courts respectively; and the Surplus of such Fees arising in each of the said Courts, after the Payment of the said Salaries and Expences, shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer to the Credit of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, at such Times and in such Manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being shall think proper to direct; and in the Event of the Fees so received by the Masters of any one of the said Courts being at any Time insufficient to defray the said Salaries and other necessary Expences it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorized and required, to direct the Amount of such Deficiency to be charged upon and paid out of the said Consolidated Fund.

Masters, Clerks, and Messengers not to take Gratuities on pain of Dismissal.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Master of the said Courts respectively appointed or to be appointed under or by virtue of this Act, or any Person whatever employed in the Offices of the said Masters, shall for any thing done or pretended to be done relating to his Office or Employment, or under colour of doing any thing relating to his Office or Employment, or for forbearing to do any Act properly appertaining to his said Office, demand, take, receive, or accept, or allow any Person whatsoever to take for him or on his Account, or for or on account of or in trust for him him or any other Person named by him, any Gratuity, Perquisite, or Reward, or any thing of Value, other than the lawful Fees and Emoluments herein-before directed to be taken and received and accounted for as aforesaid, or other than the Salary or Remuneration allowed or to be allowed to every such Master or Person aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Lord Chief Justice or Lord Chief Baron of the Court to which such Master or Person shall belong, and he is hereby empowered and required, upon his being satisfied that the Person charged is guilty of so offending, to remove him from his Office or Employment; and the Person so removed shall be and is hereby rendered incapable for ever thereafter of holding any Office, Situation, or Employment in the said Courts respectively, or of otherwise serving Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, in any Manner whatsoever.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the Masters of the said Courts respectively shall cause all Fees received by them, and all Disbursements made thereout for Salaries and other necessary Expences, to be duly and regularly entered in One or more Books to be kept for that Purpose in their Offices, distinguishing the Fees received under their several Heads, and also the Particulars and Amount of every Disbursement; and shall quarterly, within One Month after the Thirty-first Day of March, the Thirtieth Day of June, the Thirtieth Day of September, and the Thirty-first Day of December in every Year, render a true and faithful Account in Writing to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being of all such Fees and Disbursements, in such Form of Account, and with such Particulars of Receipt or otherwise, and accompanied by such Vouchers, as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time think proper to require and direct; and if upon the Examination of any such Account it shall appear to the said Commissioners that any Fees have not been duly accounted for, or that any unreasonable or improper Charge or Deduction has been made in such Account, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners finally to settle and adjust the same in such Way as they may think reasonable and proper, and the Masters of the said Courts by whom such Account shall have been rendered shall and they are hereby required to alter and amend the said Account accordingly: Provided always, that the Masters of the said Courts respectively shall submit their Books of Account to the Inspection of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Person or Persons whom they may employ for that Purpose, whenever the said Masters shall be required so to do.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That every Person appointed or to be appointed under the Provisions of this Act as a Master of the said Courts respectively, or as a Clerk or Messenger in the Offices of any of such Masters, and who was entitled to and has received Compensation or Salary in respect of the Office formerly held by him under the Act herein-before mentioned passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth and the First Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, or under that Act and any other Act or Acts of Parliament regulating or relating to his Office or Situation, who shall hereafter resign his Office or Situation, giving Two Months Notice in Writing of such Resignation to the Lord Chief Justice or Lord Chief Baron or the Court to which he shall belong, shall be entitled to receive, during his Life, such annual Sum as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall think proper to fix and appoint, not exceeding in any Case the net annual Value of the Office or Situation formerly held by him, and not being less in any Case than Three Fourths thereof, provided that such annual Sum shall exceed the Superannuation Allowance to be ascertained as herein-after mentioned; and every Person appointed or to be appointed to any Situation as aforesaid under this Act, where such annual Sum shall amount to a less Sum than the Superannuation Allowance to be ascertained as herein-after mentioned, or who was not entitled to and has not received Compensation in respect of any former Office held by him under the Provisions of the said Act, and who shall hereafter resign his Office or Situation with the Sanction and under the Authority of the Lord Chief Justice or Lord Chief Baron of the Court to which he shall belong in consequence of his being incapable, from Infirmary of Mind or Body, to discharge the Duties thereof, shall be entitled to receive such Superannuation Allowance as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall think proper to direct; and in ascertaining and awarding the Amount of such Superannuation Allowance the said Commissioners shall take into consideration the whole Period during which any such Person shall have been permanently employed in any Office or Situation in either of the said Courts, or in any other public Office or Situation prior to the passing of this Act, and shall proceed according to the Principles laid down by an Act passed in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to alter, amend, and consolidate the Laws for regulating the Pensions, Compensations, and Allowances to be made to Persons in respect of their having held Civil Offices in His Majesty's Service; and all such Sums and Allowances which shall be so awarded and granted under the Authority aforesaid shall be paid and payable and be charged and chargeable in the same Way as is herein-before provided in respect of the Salaries of the Masters, Clerks, and Messengers of the said Courts respectively, and the necessary Expences of the said Offices.

the said Courts.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in the Event of any Reduction being hereafter made in the Number of the Masters, Clerks, or Messengers created or authorized by this Act, the Lord Chief Justice, Lord Chief Baron, and Masters of the said Courts respectively for the Time being shall not be entitled to Compensation for the Loss of any Right of Appointment vested in them or either of them by virtue of this Act.

XXIII. ' And whereas it would tend to the Despatch of Business, ' and would assimilate the Practice and promote Uniformity in the ' Allowance of Costs, if the Masters of the said Courts appointed ' or to be appointed under this Act were empowered to tax Costs ' which have arisen or may arise in each of the said Courts indis- ' criminately;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, the Masters of the said Courts appointed or to be appointed as aforesaid are hereby authorized, empowered, and required, subject to such Rules and Orders as herein-after mentioned, to tax all Bills of Costs indiscriminately which shall have arisen or which which may arise in Cases of a Civil Nature in any of the said Courts, or in the Court of Error in the Exchequer Chamber, although such Costs may not have arisen in respect of Business done in the Court to which such Masters may belong; and the Judges of the said Courts, or any Eight or more of them, of whom the Chiefs of each of the said Courts shall be Three, shall and they are hereby required, by any Rule or Order to be from Time to Time made either in Term or Vacation, to establish such Regulations as may be necessary for the Purpose of enforcing Uniformity of Practice in the Allowance of Costs in the Common Law Courts, and of ensuring as far as may be practicable an equal Division of the Business of Taxation amongst the Masters of the said Courts; and such Judges shall appoint some convenient Place in which the said Business of Taxation shall be transacted for all the said Courts.

XXIV. ' And whereas by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to abolish the Sale of Offices in the Court of King's Bench in England, to make Provision for the Lord Chief Justice of the said Court, and to grant an additional Annuity to the said Lord Chief Justice on Resignation of his Office, it was recited, that the several Offices of Clerk of the Rules on the Plea Side, Clerk of the Papers on the Plea Side, Clerk of the Declarations, Clerk of the Common Bails, Estreats, and Postea's, and Clerk of the Dockets, all in the Court of King's Bench, were in the Gift of the Chief Clerk of the said Court, and were deemed to be saleable by him; and also that the Offices of the Clerks of the Inner and Outer Treasury, Clerks of Nisi Prius in London and other Cities, and on the several Circuits, and Bagbearer on the Plea Side, also in the Court of King's Bench, were in the Gift of the Custos Brevium of the said Court, and were deemed to be saleable by him, and that it was expedient to abolish the Sale of such Offices, without Prejudice however to the Rights of any of the Persons then holding the same, or having the Right of Appointment thereto: And whereas by another Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to abolish the Sale of Offices in the Court of Common Pleas in England, to make Provision for the Lord Chief Justice of the said Court, and to grant an additional Annuity to the said Lord Chief Justice on Resignation of his Office, it was recited that the Offices of Second Prothonotary and Clerk of the Juries were appointed by the Lord Chief Justice on the Nomination of the Custos Brevium, and that each of the Three Prothonotaries of the said Court had the Appointment of One Secondary, and such Rights of Appointments were continued to the Persons then in Possession of the said Offices of Custos Brevium and Prothonotaries respectively: And whereas the Persons who were so respectively declared by the said recited Acts to be in Possession of the Right of Sale, Nomination, or Appointment in and to the several Offices mentioned in the said Acts are still possessed of and have continued to exercise the said Rights: And whereas the Office of Signer of the Writs in the Court of Queen's Bench is also in the Gift, Nomination, or Appointment

‘ of the Chief Clerk of the said Court : And whereas all the said ‘ Offices will be abolished by this Act, and it is only just and ‘ reasonable that Provision should be made for granting Compens‘ sation upon equitable Principles for all Injury to or Loss of the ‘ same ;’ be it further enacted, That if since the said Twenty-fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty any Party or Parties shall, in the Exercise of any such Right, have been nominated or appointed to any Office or Offices so declared to be the Subject of such Right, or if any such Office shall be now vacant by Death, or the Party now holding any such Office shall hereafter die, it shall and may be lawful for the Person or Persons possessed as aforesaid of the Right of Sale, Nomination, or Appointment in and to such Office or Offices respectively, or to whom but for this Act such Right would have come by virtue of any Interest now vested, except as regards Compensation for the Interest to which any such Instrument as herein-after mentioned shall relate, or for the Person or Persons in whose Favour any such Right may have been exercised, to apply to the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury for Compensation for the Loss of the aforesaid Right of Sale, Nomination, or Appointment in and to such Office or Offices respectively, or for any Injury affecting such Office or Offices, or for the Loss of such Office or Offices by the Abolition thereof under this Act ; and in every such Case the said Lord High Treasurer or any Three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury shall forthwith examine into such Application by all and every such Means as he or they shall think proper ; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for him or them and they are hereby required to order and direct, by Warrant under his or their Hands, that such annual or gross Sum by way of Compensation shall be paid to or to the Use of such Person or Persons, and at such Time or Times respectively as the said Lord High Treasurer or the said Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury shall in his or their Discretion deem just and equitable, regard being had to the Value of such Offices as ascertained and certified under the Provisions of the aforesaid Act of the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth and the First Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty ; and all such Compensations, whether annual or in gross, shall be issued and paid and payable (without any Fee or Deduction whatsoever) out of and be charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland : Provided always, that if upon the Death of any of the Officers now holding for Life any of the Offices abolished by this Act, any Person shall be able to prove to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury for the Time being, that he would in such Event have been entitled, under any Instrument of a Date prior to the said Twenty-fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty, to be appointed to succeed to such Office if the same had not been abolished by this Act, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury for the Time being to award Compensation to such Person upon equitable Principles, having regard to all the Circumstances of the Case ; and such Compensation, when awarded, shall

shall be payable out of the Consolidated Fund in manner aforesaid: Provided also, that an Account of all Compensations granted shall, within Fourteen Days next after the same shall have been granted as aforesaid, be laid before the Commons House of Parliament, if Parliament shall be then assembled, or if Parliament shall not be then assembled, then within Fourteen Days after the Meeting of Parliament then next following: Provided also, that all the lawful Powers and Authorities by which the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are authorized to purchase any of the Offices, Rights, or Interests in this or any other Act mentioned or referred to, shall continue in full Force and Effect, notwithstanding the Abolition of the said Offices, Rights, or Interests by this or any other Act or Acts.

XXV. ' And whereas by the Act herein-before recited, passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth and First Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, certain Officers belonging to the Superior Courts of Common Law, who were appointed prior to the Twenty-fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty, are entitled to receive Compensation for any Loss thereafter sustained by them in their Fees and Emoluments in consequence of the Amendments and Alterations in the Process, Practice, Pleadings, and other Proceedings of the said Courts: And whereas by another Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty, to explain and amend the same Act, the Warden of the Fleet Prison was declared to be within the true Intent and Meaning of the said first-mentioned Statute, but no Provision was made for the several Persons holding the Offices of Clerk of the Papers in the said Prison, and the Tipstiffs of the Court of Common Pleas, who were severally appointed to their Offices by the said Warden prior to the said Twenty-fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty: And whereas the Clerk of the Papers at the Queen's Bench Prison, and the Tipstiffs of the Court of Queen's Bench, have been and now are compensated under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act, and it is only just and reasonable that the same Description of Officers in the Court of Common Pleas, whose Duties and Emoluments are similar in their Nature to those attached to the Court of Queen's Bench, should be placed upon the same Footing; be it therefore enacted, That the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall ascertain the gross and net annual Value of the Offices of the said Clerk of the Papers at the Fleet Prison, and the Tipstiffs of the Court of Common Pleas respectively, according to a fair Average of the lawful Fees and Emoluments of such Offices for a Period of Ten Years next preceding the Twenty-fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty, or such other Average of Years as the said Commissioners may think proper, and according to the same Rules and Principles as were adopted by the Commissioners in ascertaining the Value of other Offices in the Superior Courts of Common Law under the Provisions of the said recited Acts; and in case the net Amount of the Fees and Emoluments actually received by either of the said Officers has in any Year, since the said Twenty-fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty, fallen short, or shall hereafter fall short of the net annual Value of their Offices as aforesaid, every such Officer shall be entitled to receive from and after the said Twenty-fourth Day of May, and so long as he or they shall continue in Office, from the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, the full Amount of the Difference between the net Sum actually received by such Officer and the net Value of his Office; and the Amount so to be paid shall be charged and chargeable and be paid and payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the same Way as other Officers belonging to the Superior Courts of Common Law are now paid; and in case the net Amount of the lawful Fees and Emoluments actually received by either of the said Officers in any Year since the said Twenty-fourth Day of May has exceeded or shall hereafter exceed the net annual Value of their Offices ascertained as aforesaid, the Surplus shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, to the Credit of the Consolidated Fund, at such Times and in such Manner as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall think proper to direct.

Persons whose Offices are abolished to receive full Amount of Compensation under 11 G. 4. & 1 W. 4. c. 58. until the Treasury shall otherwise determine under the Provision of that Act.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Provisions and Powers contained in the before-recited Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth and the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the Receipt and future Appropriation of Fees and Emoluments receivable by Officers of the Superior Courts of Common Law, shall, so far as the same is applicable, extend to all Cases in which any Office shall be abolished by the Authority of this or any subsequent Act, and the Person, his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, who in case such Office were not abolished would, under the Provisions of the last-recited Act, have been entitled to receive the Difference between the net Amount of the Fees and Emoluments which would have become due in such Office and the certified Value thereof, or who under that Act and any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to his Office or Situation would have been entitled to receive any Compensation, Salary, or official Income, shall be entitled, from the Time of the Abolition of such Office, to receive the full Amount of such certified Value, Compensation, Salary, or official Income in Four equal quarterly Payments, on the Fifth Days of April, July, and January, and the Tenth Day of October in each Year, to be paid and payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, without any Fee or Deduction whatsoever, until a full and fair Compensation shall have been fixed and appointed for such Person under the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Act; and when such Compensation shall have been so fixed and appointed for such abolished Office, the same shall be in like Manner a Charge upon and shall be paid out of the said Consolidated Fund, without any Fee or Deduction whatever, by such equal quarterly Payments as last aforesaid, together with a proportional Part of such annual Sum for the Time which at the Decease of the Person entitled thereto shall have elapsed since the last Payment thereof.

In fixing Compensation regard to be had to the XXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in fixing the Amount of Compensation to be awarded under the said last-recited recited Act due regard shall be had to the different Circumstances of the several Offices abolished by this Act, and to the Nature and Extent of the Duties from which the Persons holding certain of such Offices will be relieved by the Abolition thereof.

XXVIII. ' And whereas by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, intituled An Act for the public registering of Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills, and other Incumbrances, which shall be made of or shall affect any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments within the County of Middlesex, after the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand seven hundred and nine, and by another Act passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for appointing the Deputy or Secondary of the Chief Clerk to enrol Pleas in the King's Bench, called the Master of the King's Bench Office, One of the Registers or Masters for the Inrolment of Deeds, Wills, and other Conveyances in the County of Middlesex, in the Place and Stead of such Chief Clerk, it is provided that the Clerk of the Warrants in the Court of Common Pleas, and the Master or Secondary of the Court of King's Bench, for the Time being, shall be Two of the Officers for executing the Duties of Registers and Masters for the Matters and Things in the said first-recited Act contained: And whereas the said Offices of Clerk of the Warrants in the Court of Common Pleas and the Master or Secondary of the Court of Queen's Bench will be abolished by this Act, and Doubts may arise whether those Officers can any longer continue legally to execute the Duties of such Registers and Masters as aforesaid; be it therefore enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to abolish the Office of Registers or Masters for the Inrolment of Deeds, Wills, and other Conveyances in the County of Middlesex, or for any other Matters or Things in the said first-recited Act contained, or to deprive any of the Persons now holding such Office of Registers or Masters of that Office, and that such Persons shall and may henceforth, and until otherwise provided for by Law, continue to hold and enjoy such Office, and execute all the Powers and Duties appertaining thereto, in the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act had not been passed; and if the Clerk of the Warrants in the Court of Common Pleas, or the Master or Secondary of the Court of Queen's Bench, abolished by this Act, and who now hold the Office of such Registers or Masters as aforesaid, shall die or resign, or otherwise be discharged from the Office of Registers or Masters, it shall be lawful for the Lords Chief Justices of the Courts of Queen's Bench and Common Pleas for the Time being, until otherwise directed by Parliament, to nominate and appoint some fit and proper Person to fill the Office of such Register or Master, such Person being a Master in one of the said Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster, or a Barrister or an Attorney in the same in actual Practice of not less than Five Years standing, in the Place or Stead of the Person so dying, resigning, or being discharged from such Office; and the Person so nominated and appointed by the Lords Chief Justices as aforesaid shall, previously to his entering upon or executing such Office, take such Oath or Oaths, and afterwards execute such Office, and the Powers and Duties appertaining thereto, in the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as the Persons executing the same would by Law be required and authorized to take and execute if this Act had not been passed.

An Act to repeal the several Laws relating to the Post Office.
[12th July 1837.]

‘ WHEREAS the Laws of the Post Office, by reason of successive Additions and Alterations, have become intricate, it is expedient that new Enactments should be substituted, exhibiting more plainly and compendiously the Provisions thereof:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Acts and Parts of Acts set forth in the Schedule (A.) hereto annexed, so far as the same shall be in force at the Commencement of this Act, are hereby repealed; nevertheless no Act or Part of an Act repealed by any of the Acts hereby repealed shall be revived by the passing of this Act; and no Act or Part of an Act perpetuated or continued by any of the Acts hereby repealed (except such as are herein expressly repealed) shall be repealed by the passing of this Act; and, notwithstanding the Repeal of the Acts hereby repealed, all Acts which might have been done, and all Proceedings which might have been taken or prosecuted relating to any Offences which shall have been committed, or to any Matters which shall have happened, or to any Monies which shall have become due, or to any Fines or Penalties which shall have been incurred, before the Day on which this Act shall come into operation, may still be done or prosecuted, and the Offences may be dealt with and punished, and the Monies may be recovered and dealt with, and the Fines and Penalties may be enforced and applied, as if the Acts hereby repealed continued in force.

 ' And whereas, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Act of ' the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Second,
 ' there is now paid out of Duties which form Part of the said
 ' Consolidated Fund to the Clerk of the Hanaper an annual Sum,
 ' to be paid over by him to the Master of the Rolls, who out of ' the same has to pay Taxes and Duties, which form Part of the ' said Consolidated Fund, and then by virtue of the said first-recited

 ' And whereas it is expedient that the said Fee or Sum of Six
 ' Shillings and Eight-pence payable to the Master of the Rolls ' upon every Decree or Dismission, and the said Fees payable to ' the Master of the Rolls on the Admission of Clerks in Court, and
 ' on Leave to execute Marshalsea Court Writs within the Liberty
 ' of the Rolls, should be abolished : And whereas it will be more ' convenient, and more consistent with the Honour and Dignity ' of the Master of the Rolls, that the said full annual Sum of Seven ' thousand Pounds should be received by him wholly out of the ' said Consolidated Fund, and that the said Fees and Payments
 ' now received by him, and other the Emoluments of his Office,
 ' should be paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer in
 ' ease of the public Revenue, than that he should receive such Fees,
 ' Payments, and Emoluments, and have to account for the same

Bushels if such Corn or Grain shall have been emptied from the Cistern Sixteen Hours or upwards, the Increase so respectively found as aforesaid shall be deemed conclusive Evidence of such Corn or Grain having been trodden or forced together, and the Court or Justices before whom such Evidence shall be given shall thereupon convict the Maltster or Maker of Malt in the Penalty imposed by the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of His said Majesty's Reign; and every Maltster or Maker of Malt who, or whose Servants or Workmen shall, when directed by any Officer of Excise, refuse to throw out any Corn or Grain making into Malt from any Cistern or Couch, or to aid or assist, if required so to do, in returning the same into the Cistern or Couch from which the same shall have been thrown, shall forfeit One hundred Pounds: Provided always, that it shall be lawful to prove by any other or different Evidence that such Corn or Grain had been trodden or forced together.

C A P. LIII.

An Act to explain and amend an Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of His late Majesty, for extinguishing the Secular Jurisdiction of the Archbishop of York and the Bishop of Ely in certain Liberties in the Counties of York, Nottingham, and Cambridge.

[15th July 1837.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for extinguishing the Secular Jurisdiction of the Archbishop of York and the Bishop of Ely in certain Liberties in the Counties of York, Nottingham, and Cambridge, it was amongst other things enacted, that all the Secular Authority of the Bishop of Ely in the Isle of Ely in the County of Cambridge, and all Authority of the Chief Justice of Ely, theretofore appointed by the Bishop of Ely, should, from and after the passing of the said Act, cease and determine, and all the Secular Authority of the said Bishop should become and be vested in His late Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; provided always, that nothing therein contained should prevent any Justice of the Peace then acting for the said Isle from continuing to act as such within the Limits of the said Jurisdiction as if the said Act had not been passed; and it was further enacted, that the County Rates for the said Isle of Ely should remain, as theretofore, distinct from the Rates for the rest of the County of Cambridge, and should be assessed and levied, and paid and applied, by and under the Order and Direction of the Justices of the Peace for the said Isle, as if the same were a separate County, but in all other respects under the same Regulations as were applicable to the Rates of other Counties in England; and it was further enacted, that no Person should, from and after the passing of the said Act, be committed to the Gaol at Ely, but all Persons who, if the said Act had not passed, might have been committed to or confined in such Gaol, might be committed to and confined in the Gaol at Cambridge, and the Justices of the said Isle of Ely should have full Power to commit to the said Gaol at Cambridge, and all Persons who at the Time of the passing of the said Act should be confined in the said Gaol at Ely should, as soon as might be after the passing of the said Act, be delivered up by the Keeper of the said Gaol at Ely to the Keeper of the said Gaol at Cambridge, together with the Warrant or Instrument under or by virtue whereof every such Person should be then detained in Custody, and the Keeper of the said Gaol at Cambridge should receive and detain such Persons in Custody in the same Way as if such Persons had originally been committed to his Custody: And whereas the Gaol for the County of Cambridge is not locally situate within the Town or Borough of Cambridge, but is situate ‘ near 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 87.

' near thereto, and within the Parish of Chesterton in the same County, and there is a Gaol for the said Town or Borough which is situate within the Precincts of the same: And whereas it is desirable to prevent any Doubt as to the Meaning of the said recited Act in regard to the Gaol to which Persons should be committed and removed from the said Isle of Ely, and to declare that by the Gaol at Cambridge mentioned in the said Act the Gaol for the County of Cambridge for the Time being was meant and intended: And whereas by the Committal of Prisoners from the said Isle of Ely to the said County Gaol, and the keeping and maintaining such Prisoners there, considerable Expence will be occasioned to the said County of Cambridge, and in consequence thereof it may be necessary to enlarge the said Gaol for the County of Cambridge; and it is therefore expedient that all Expences already occasioned or which may hereafter be occasioned thereby, as well as from the Prosecution, Trial, Punishment, Conveyance, and Transport of such Prisoners, should be charged on the said Rates for the said Isle of Ely:' Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That by the Gaol at Cambridge mentioned in the herein-before recited Act was meant and intended the Gaol for the said County of Cambridge situate at Chesterton in the same County; and that all Persons who if the said recited Act had not passed might have been committed to or confined in the Gaol at Ely may be committed to and confined in the Gaol for the Time being of the said County of Cambridge, and that all Justices who if the said Act had not been passed might have committed to the Gaol of the said Isle of Ely shall have full Power to commit to the Gaol for the Time being of the said County of Cambridge.

Gaol referred to in recited Act declared to be the County Gaol; and Ely Prisoners may be committed to the County Gaol for the Time being.

As to the Imprisonment of Persons convicted of Crimes in the Isle of Ely.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Judges, Justices, and others acting under any Commission of Gaol Delivery to direct that any Person who shall have been committed for any Crime from the said Isle of Ely, and who shall thereupon be convicted and sentenced to Imprisonment, shall be imprisoned either in the Gaol or House of Correction of the said County of Cambridge, or in any other Gaol or House of Correction at Ely or Wisbeach, or elsewhere in the said Isle of Ely.

Expences payable by the Isle of Ely.

III. And be it enacted, That all Expences already incurred or which may hereafter be incurred under or by virtue of the said recited Act by the Committal of Persons from the said Isle of Ely to the Gaol for the said County of Cambridge, and of the keeping and Maintenance of such Persons there, and also of the Prosecution, Trial, Punishment, Conveyance, and Transport of such Prisoners, and all other Expences occasioned by their being kept and detained in such Gaol, or by the consequent and necessary Increase of Turnkeys and other Attendants, or the Alteration or Enlargement of the said Gaol, and also a due Proportion of the Expences of the necessary Repairs of the said Gaol, and of the general Expences of the Establishment thereof for the Time being, shall be paid and satisfied out of the said Rates for the said Isle of Ely; and (Notice in Writing of the Amount of such Expences being given or transmitted by Post by the Clerk of the Peace for the the said County to the Clerk of the Peace for the said Isle half-yearly, specifying the Time at which the same are required to be paid,) the Justices of the Peace for the said Isle shall from Time to Time assess and levy the Amount of such Expences, and use and exercise all Powers, Authorities, and Methods in regard thereto, in the same Manner as they are and shall be empowered by Law to assess and levy County Rates, or Rates in the Nature of a County Rate, within the said Isle for other Purposes; and the Amount of such Expences shall from Time to Time be paid by the Treasurers for the said Isle, or One of them, to the Treasurer for the said County, to be applied to the Satisfaction of all such Expences accordingly; and such last-mentioned Treasurer shall be accountable for the same in the same Manner as for other County Rates received by him: Provided always, that no Enlargement of the said Gaol shall be made until Notice of such proposed Enlargement shall be given by the Clerk of the Peace for the said County to the Clerk of the Peace for the said Isle, nor until the Expediency of such Enlargement shall have been submitted to the Consideration of and shall have been agreed to by a Joint Committee of Six Justices of the Peace for the said County and Isle, to be appointed at the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the said County and Isle respectively next after such Notice in the Manner provided.

IV. And be it enacted, That if at any Time hereafter the Justices of the Peace for the said Isle shall refuse to make, assess, and levy a Rate for defraying any such Expences as aforesaid, (and the Nonpayment thereof by the Time to be specified in such Notice shall be construed to be a Refusal to make, assess, and levy such Rate,) the Justices of the Peace for the said County and Isle respectively shall, at the respective General or Quarter Sessions which shall be holden in and for the County and in and for the Isle next after such Refusal respectively, appoint Six Justices of the Peace for the County and for the Isle in manner herein-after mentioned, that is to say, the Justices of the Peace for the said County shall at such Sessions appoint Three Justices of the Peace for the said County, and the Justices of the Peace for the said Isle shall at such Sessions appoint Three Justices of the Peace for the said Isle; which Justices of the Peace so to be respectively appointed as aforesaid are hereby required to meet, at such Time as shall be fixed for the Purpose by the Chairman of such General or Quarter Sessions for the said County, at the Gaol for the said County, and of which Time of Meeting Notice in Writing shall be given or transmitted by Post by the Clerk of the Peace for the said County to the County Justices so to be appointed, and by the same Clerk of the Peace to the Clerk of the Peace for the said Isle, who shall give or transmit the same by Post to the Isle Justices so to be appointed; and the Justices of the Peace so to be appointed as aforesaid, or the major Part of them then and there assembled (such major Part not being less than Five in Number), shall hold a Special Sessions at the said Gaol for the Purpose of ascertaining and settling whether any and what Expences are chargeable in respect of any of the Matters aforesaid on the Rates of the said Isle, and the Proportion of Expences in respect of any of the said Matters which ought to be borne by the said County and Isle respectively; and and the Clerk of the Peace for the said County shall attend such Special Sessions, and keep a Record of the Proceedings there, which Record shall be Evidence thereof; and the Sum or Sums which at any such Special Sessions as aforesaid shall be declared to be chargeable on the said Isle under this Act, shall be levied and raised in manner aforesaid.

V. And be it enacted, That all Justices of the Peace acting in and for the said Isle of Ely shall from and after the passing of this Act have and possess and may exercise all such and the same Rights, Privileges, Powers, and Authorities whatsoever within the said Isle of Ely as any Justice of the Peace acting in and for any County, Riding, or Division now hath or possesses or may exercise in such County, Riding, or Division.

Mutual Powers given to Justices of the Peace for the County and for the Isle to apprehend Offenders out of their respective Limits.

VI. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful from and after the passing of this Act for any Justice of the Peace acting in and for the said County of Cambridge, and he is hereby authorized, to issue under his Hand and Seal any Warrant or Warrants for the Apprehension of any Person or Persons residing or being within the said Isle of Ely, charged on Oath before him the said Justice with any Felony or Misdemeanor committed in the said County of Cambridge, and in like Manner for any Justice of the Peace acting in and for the said Isle of Ely, and he is hereby authorized, to issue under his Hand and Seal any Warrant or Warrants for the Apprehension of any Person or Persons residing or being within the said County of Cambridge, charged on Oath before him the said last-mentioned Justice with any Felony or Misdemeanor committed in the said Isle of Ely; and the Constables or Constable or other Person to whom any such Warrant or Warrants shall or may be addressed or directed are and is hereby authorized to apprehend and take any such Person or Persons so charged on Oath as aforesaid (and whose Name or Names shall be inserted in such Warrant or Warrants) with any such Felony or Misdemeanor committed in the said County of Cambridge or in the said Isle of Ely, without Indorsement of such Warrant or Warrants by any Justice of the Peace of the said County of Cambridge or of the said Isle of Ely.

Isle of Ely to be a Division of a County.

' distant upwards of Fourteen Miles from Ripon aforesaid, and it ' is highly expedient that the said Townships should be entirely ' separate and distinct from the said Liberty of Ripon;' be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said Townships of Feliskirk and Sutton-under-Whitestonecliffe, and the said Townships of Kilburn and Marton Lordship, be absolutely removed and separated out of and from the said Liberty soever, and be solely within the Jurisdiction of the said North Riding; any Custom or Usage to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

by any other Act in this present Session of Parliament.

An Act for amending the several Acts for the Regulation of Attornies and Solicitors. [15th July 1837.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the several Acts for the Regulation of Attornies and Solicitors, and which was afterwards amended by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, for amending the several Acts for the Regulation of Attornies and Solicitors, Provision was made for facilitating the Admission of Graduates of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, and Dublin as Attornies and Solicitors of the Courts of Law and Equity, in manner and upon the Conditions in the said Acts mentioned: And whereas since the passing of the said recited Acts a Body Politic and Corporate by the Name of The University of London has been constituted by the Royal Charter of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and an University has been founded and established in connexion with the Cathedral Church of Durham, under the Authority of an Act passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to enable the Dean and Chapter of Durham to appropriate Part of the Property of their Church to the Establishment of an University in connexion therewith, for the Advancement of Learning: And whereas since the passing of the said last-mentioned Act a Royal Charter of Incorporation has been granted to the University of Durham; and it is expedient that the Provisions of the said first-recited Acts should be extended to Graduates of the said Universities of London and Durham:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act all the Provisions, Regulations, Conditions, and Restrictions in the said recited Acts or either of them contained for or relating to the Admission and Inrolment as Attornies and Solicitors of Persons who had taken or shall thereafter take the Degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Law in any of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, and Dublin, shall extend and be applicable to the Admission and Inrolment as Attornies and Solicitors of all Persons who shall have taken or shall take the Degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Law either in the said University of London or in the said University of Durham, as fully and effectually as if the said Body Politic and Corporate called The University of London and the said University of Durham had been respectively constituted and founded at the Time of the passing of the said Acts, and had been therein named together with the said Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, and Dublin.

II. ‘ And whereas by an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of Attornies and Solicitors, it is enacted, that the Judges of the several Courts of Common Law therein mentioned

 ‘ Court of Chancery, shall in like Manner, before he or they shall ‘ Person is duly qualified to be admitted to act as an Attorney, ‘ and the said Master of the Rolls or Two Masters in Chancery ‘ shall be satisfied that such Person is duly qualified to be admitted ‘ to act as a Solicitor, they are thereby respectively authorized ‘ to administer to such Person the Oath therein mentioned, and ‘ to admit and inrol him as an Attorney or Solicitor of such Court ‘ respectively, without any Fee or Reward, other than One Shilling ‘ for administering such Oath : And whereas other Fees, Gratui‘ ties, and Sums of Money beside the said Fee of One Shilling have ‘ been in practice demanded or received by Officers of the said ‘ Courts respectively ; and it is expedient to repeal so much of the ‘ said last-recited Act as relates to the Fee payable upon such ‘ Admission, and to make other Regulations in lieu thereof : And ‘ whereas Regulations for ensuring the due Examination of Persons ‘ Expences incident thereto :’ Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act so much of the said last-recited Act of the Second Year of the Reign of King George the Second as relates to the Fee payable upon such Admissions shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

[15th July 1837.]

‘ WHEREAS several Acts were agreed upon by the Lords ‘ Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present ‘ Parliament assembled, during the Reign of His late Majesty King ‘ William the Fourth, of blessed Memory, which had not received ‘ the Royal Assent at the Time of the Demise of His late Majesty :
 ‘ And whereas several other Acts and Bills which were first moved ‘ during the Reign of His late Majesty are yet under the Con‘ sideration of Parliament : And whereas in some of the said Acts ‘ and Bills are Recitals, References, and Enactments which in ‘ Words refer to His Majesty and to Acts of His Majesty’s Reign, ‘ which Recitals, References, and Enactments were proper at the ‘ Time when the said Acts and Bills were first moved, but have ‘ become incorrect by reason of the Accession of our Sovereign ‘ Lady Victoria, the Queen that now is : And whereas it is expe‘ dient to guard against any Doubt which may therefrom arise :
 ‘ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, ‘ by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and ‘ Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, ‘ and by the Authority of the same, That every Act of this present ‘ Session of Parliament which shall have received the Royal Assent

[15th July 1837.]

‘ WHEREAS by several Acts passed respectively in the Forty-‘ third, Forty-eighth, and Fifty-second Years of the Reign of ‘ King George the Third certain Duties of Assessed Taxes were ‘ granted and made payable in respect of Carriages with less than ‘ Four Wheels, and by the same Acts respectively certain lower ‘ Rates of the said Duties were made payable in respect of certain ‘ inferior

inferior Descriptions of such Carriages called "Taxed Carts," provided the Owner's Christian and Surname and Place of Abode, and other Particulars in the said Acts respectively mentioned, should be painted on such Carriages in the Manner therein mentioned, in Words at full Length, each of the Letters thereof being at least One Inch in Length and of a Breadth in proportion: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth the said Carriages called "Taxed Carts," having such Particulars so painted thereon as aforesaid, were wholly exempted from the said Duties: And whereas by an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth the Duties of Assessed Taxes were repealed in respect of certain other inferior Carriages with less than Four Wheels, provided such Carriages were built and constructed in the Manner specified in the said last-mentioned Act, and provided that every such Carriage shall have the Christian and Surname or Names and Places of Abode, Occupation or Calling of the Owner or Owners marked or painted thereon in Roman Characters, and in Words at Length, each of the Letters being at least One Inch in Height, and of a proper and proportionate Breadth: And whereas by an Act passed in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty a further Exemption was granted from the said Duties of Assessed Taxes in respect of certain other Carriages with less than Four Wheels, provided, amongst other things, that every such Carriage respectively should have the Christian Name and Surname, and Place of Abode, and Occupation or Calling of the Owner and of every Owner thereof, painted in Words at Length, and in legible and conspicuous Roman Letters or Characters, Two Inches at the least in Height, and of a proper and proportionate Breadth, upon the Outside of such Carriage, in manner in the said last-recited Act mentioned: And whereas it is expedient to allow the said last-mentioned Exemption in Cases where such Letters or Characters so painted as aforesaid shall be of a less Height than Two Inches, provided the same shall be of the Height of One Inch at the least: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That upon all Assessments made or to be made for any Year commencing from or at any Time after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven the said last-mentioned Exemption shall extend to every such Carriage in that Behalf mentioned and described in the said last-recited Act whereon the several Particulars in the said last-recited Act specified shall be painted, in the Manner therein mentioned, in distinct Words at Length, and in legible and conspicuous Roman Letters or Characters One Inch at the least in Height, and of a proper and proportionate Breadth.

II. ' And whereas by the Acts in force relating to the Duties of Assessed Taxes all Coachmakers and Makers of Carriages, and all Sellers of Carriages by Auction or on Commission, and all Persons letting to Hire any Carriages, are respectively required to enter in a Book an Account of all Carriages by them respectively built and constructed for Sale, or sold or let to Hire, containing ‘ reside, or to the Surveyor or Inspector of the said Duties: And ‘ whereas the describing of such Carriages has been found to be ‘ attended with Difficulty and Inconvenience to the Persons re‘ quired to make such Entries and to deliver Copies thereof as ‘ aforesaid;’ for the Relief of such Persons, be it enacted, That in any such Entry as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to describe any Carriage further or otherwise than by stating the Number of

III. ‘ And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of ‘ the Reign of King George the Third, for repealing the several ‘ Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the ‘ Affairs of Taxes, and granting new Duties in lieu thereof, and ‘ for other Purposes therein mentioned, the respective Commis‘ sioners of the Duties of Assessed Taxes are thereby required, ‘ as soon as the Assessment of the said Duties shall be made, to ‘ issue out and deliver to the respective Collectors their Warrants ‘ for the speedy and effectual levying and collecting the said Duties ‘ as the same shall become payable as therein mentioned; and it is ‘ thereby enacted that such Part thereof as cannot be so levied and ‘ collected may be recoverable as a Debt upon Record to the ‘ King’s Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with full Costs of Suit,

‘ be charged, and the Sums which shall not have been collected by ‘ occasion of the Collector’s Neglect, and which ought to be re‘ assessed on the Parish, Ward, or Place, and shall cause the said ‘ several Particulars to be inserted in a Schedule fairly written on ‘ Parchment, under the Hands and Seals of such Commissioners, ‘ or any Two or more of them, containing the Names and Sur‘ names of the said Collectors, and the same to be delivered to the ‘ Receiver General, to be returned by such Receiver General into ‘ His Majesty’s Court of Exchequer, whereupon every Person so ‘ making default of Payment, and each Parish, Ward, or Place so ‘ in default, may be charged by Process of Court, according to the
